Focus on Fraternalism with Barbara A. House

Summertime is our busy time

SUMMER IS ALMOST HERE, and that means the busiest part of our fraternal year will soon be upon us.

It all starts with a very large Hungarian festival that will be held on Saturday, June 2, in New Brunswick, N.J. I have attended this festival, and it gets better every year. It really is worth the ride to New Jersey.

WPA's annual golf tournament is July 13 and 14, in Canfield, Ohio. Sure hope you plan on attending. There is so much to see and do in the area. We will also have our wonderful Chinese Auction, which benefits our scholarship foundation. Come out and have some fun.

We are also working on our Hungarian Heritage Experience in Boswell, Pa. We have made some changes this year, with the menu, evening entertainment and our text book. Hope you plan on attending. I look forward to seeing all your faces. Don't forget your bathing suit. Maybe this year we can use them.

The Birmingham Ethnic Festival in Toledo, Ohio is Sunday, Aug. 19. For the last few years, it has been held on both Saturday and Sunday. Again, mark your calendars for Sunday only. I have attended this event for most of my life, and have enjoyed every one.

Our trip to Europe is moving along, and we have many new faces joining our tour this year. We hope you will be coming with us. Many new and fun things are planned for your enjoyment. Wait until you see the Adriatic and the Danube. You will want to stay.

I know that I have given you a lot to think about but remember, if you don't support these events, they will cease to be, and that would be a shame. □

Aging Well with Cathy Graham

Note to self: just do it!

"WHAT ADVICE would you give to your younger self?" This is a powerful question I ask participants in my wellness talks. In most cases, the answers are similar, even if the audience members have very diverse backgrounds. Age doesn't seem to be a factor either, as the answers of the 30- and 40-somethings parallel those in their 60s through 90s.

Most folks would tell their younger self to be kinder and gentler.

They would spend more time loving rather than being right.

They would take much better care of themselves by eating well and exercising consistently.

They would spend their time more selectively.

No matter how we race through the first spring of life, we get wiser as we stroll through the second and third spring. We get a close-up of what we needed from ourselves during the first 40 years while we are progressing through the last 40. You can call it hindsight, or "I wish I knew then what I know now." Or, you can simply say "I wish I would have, but...."

At the end of the day, we cannot go back and do it all over. What we can do is start today--right now, no excuses. You can rewrite your future by reframing the past.

What would you tell your younger self? Find a picture of yourself from 25 years ago and look at that face. Circle back and feel that soul. What advice would you give?

Maybe there is a trip you always wanted to take, or an adventure you turned down. By all means, do it.

Regret is an edge to sleep with. We can spend years talking ourselves out of something that could actually be really terrific. Take a hard look at the list of things you would tell your younger self. Then start doing them.

Women and retirement

Welcome summer! I trust you all had a great Memorial Day and took some time to remember those who gave the ultimate sacrifice for us to be able to enjoy the freedoms we have today.

This month, I'd like to focus on the special needs of women when planning their retirement and discuss what has been identified as the wealth gap.

A recent study by Age Wave, in partnership with Merrill Lynch, acknowledges the progress women have made personally, professionally and financially, but finds there is still more work to be done to level the financial playing field. Seventy percent of the women surveyed maintain that women and men have a fundamentally different life journey. This reinforces the need to better understand women's financial concerns and opportunities.

Women are at a "tipping point" to achieve greater financial empowerment, and it is essential that agents, financial planners and companies such as WPA continue to help them pursue financial security for life. This includes encouraging women to invest more of their assets, start saving earlier for retirement and pursue financial solutions that closely align with their personal values and beliefs.

The 2017 survey of 3,700 American adults (2,600 women and 1,100 men) found that women care a lot about investing and investment performance, but they also look at money as a way to finance the lives they desire. Seventy percent of total respondents see money in terms of what it can do for them and their families. Meanwhile, 84 percent said that understanding their finances was the key to achieving greater career flexibility. And when it comes to investing, about two-thirds of women stated that they look to invest in causes that matter to them, and with companies that are making a difference in the lives of others.

Longevity is a key concern

Longevity is an especially important factor in a woman's financial strategy, given that they outlive men by five years on average. While 64 percent of the women surveyed said they would like to live to age 100, three out of five feared they would run out of money at some point in their lives. Worse than that, 44 percent stated they would run out of money by age 80.

Financial confidence

According to the survey, 41 percent of women said not investing more sooner was their biggest regret. Sixty percent cited lack of knowledge as their main barrier to saving more and 34 percent cited lack of confidence.

The study also showed that confidence can lead to action. A large majority of women responders said that while they are very confident in most financial tasks, such as budgeting and paying the bills, their confidence plummeted when it comes to managing investments. Fifty-two percent of women surveyed (and 46 percent of millennial women) stated that they are confident when it comes to managing investment decisions, compared to 68 percent of male respondents. The good news is that 77 percent of women who are investing and saving expect to accumulate enough assets to support themselves for life.

The Wealth Gap

The study also revealed that women experience a gender wealth gap (as opposed to a wage gap). This wealth gap is the difference between men's and women's financial resources during their lifetimes. This figure includes earnings, investments, retirement savings and additional assets.

According to Age Wave's calculations, this wealth gap can translate to a woman at retirement age having

Born in Rockford, Ill., in 1965, Lincoln was named after his grandfather Lincoln, who was named after the 16th President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln.

Lincoln began his 33-year career in the insurance business in 1985, when he took a position at Pioneer Life Insurance Company while attending college. He graduated from Rockford University in 1990 with a degree in business management.

Since then, Lincoln has served as a senior vice president and/or vice president for four different insurance carriers, overseeing all phases of insurance operations. He's been instrumental in developing individual, small group and Medicare Supplement plans and has gained extensive experience in underwriting, customer service and claims.

In 2014, he began operating a wholesale brokerage agency--Quick Insured Brokerage (QIB)--that focuses entirely on the financial needs of seniors.

Lincoln is married to Wendy LaFayette, who works in the agency with Lincoln. Lincoln and Wendy have two daughters, Jordan and Kaitlyn, and a son, Kyle. This year, the family celebrated two weddings: Jordan was married on March 10, and Kyle will be married on June 9. Kaitlyn just completed her sophomore year at Bowling Green State University where she is majoring in physical therapy.

Lincoln and his team at QIB are very excited to be offering WPA's products, especially the Ordinary Life Senior Special and the Juvenile Term to Age 25 plans. □ accumulated as much as $1 million less than her male counterparts.

Several factors help contribute to this gap.

For many women, taking time away from work (or delaying full-time employment) to care for children or aging parents has taken its toll on building more retirement assets earlier in life. The study indicates that one-third of mothers who return to the workforce after raising their children accepted a lower-paying, less demanding job. Twenty-one percent stated that they were paid less for the same work they had previously done.

Additionally, the average woman is likely to have higher health care costs than the average man in retirement because of their increased longevity and the risk of needing long-term nursing care in their later years.

Take control of your future

Women's financial security is about more than just closing the pay gap; it's about accumulating assets or wealth at all income levels and increasing women's access to advisors and agents that can help them make the decisions necessary to get--and stay--on track towards a comfortable, and perhaps long-range retirement.

It's also about breaking the silence when it comes to discussing finances and money. Sixty-one percent of women surveyed said they would rather discuss their own death than talk about money, and 45 percent stated that they have no financial role model.

Women's life journeys are not only different than men's, they're also different than the journeys of their mothers and grandmothers. Women today have more opportunities and choices when it comes to family, education and careers, but they are also busy taking care of other people and priorities and often don't take the time needed to invest in themselves and their future financial well-being. If more women actively take control of their financial future, it would benefit not only them, but their families and society overall.

Are you a working (or pre-retirement) woman who is looking for alternative ways to invest and save for your financial future? Are you nearing retirement age and confused by the many choices available? Or, perhaps you're considering a rollover of your current retirement assets?

Maybe it's time to consult with your William Penn Association agent or broker. Our fixed annuities may be the perfect alternative for you. Did you know that you can open a WPA annuity for as little as $10 with $10 minimum deposit each month? Call your WPA agent today and get the help you need to take the first step toward living a comfortable retirement. Don't have an agent? Call the Home Office, and we'll be glad to help or assign a local agent to your account.

Till next time, have a great summer! □

A forgotten pioneer

IN PREVIOUS TAKES, I have written about my growing interest in genealogy. The subject is a perfect analog to my lifelong love of history as I think of genealogy as discovering one's own personal history.

Over the past several months, I've been exploring the knotted and twisted branches of my family tree, going as far as I can down one limb before I have to turn back to the main trunk to start again. Often, a seemingly insignificant or minor fact leads me to a discovery of (personally) monumental importance. This month's Take is about one such discovery.

A few months back, my cousin Shirley (from my dad's side of the family) sent us a few boxes and envelopes of documents relating to our shared family history. These writings were particularly precious because they pertained to a rather unexplored portion of my family tree, specifically relating to a branch of the family that came from the eastern portion of what was then Hungary. Shifting borders and wars complicated the ability of the local government in that area to maintain complete administrative records, and as a result, amateur historians like me can only glean so much information about family relations from such areas.

As I combed through the documents over the Christmas holiday, I stumbled upon information that led my father and I down a rabbit hole. Once we emerged from this rabbit hole, we concluded that one of our distant relatives--my great-great uncle Anton Pruckner--was once a pioneer in aviation at the turn of the 20th century. If that wasn't enough, we discovered that Anton may have been one of the first men to invent a flying airplane several years before the Wright Brothers' famous flight at Kitty Hawk.

But, history has a funny way of muddying the waters.

Because I only have two pages in this magazine, this is a just brief description of one version of my great-great uncle's story.

Anton Pruckner was born sometime in 1883 in the town of Diósgyőr, which is outside of Miskolc, Hungary. As a teenager, Anton made his way to Connecticut, possibly with my great-great grandmother Susie. In his late teens, he began to work as a mechanic and an assistant to a German immigrant named Gustave Whitehead (Weisskopf) in Fairfield, Conn. His story from this point forward is hotly disputed by professional and amateur historians and aviation enthusiasts.

The version of the tale most friendly to Pruckner and Whitehead says the two were able to conduct the first powered flight on or around Aug. 14, 1901. According to one of Pruckner's later statements, Whitehead's plane was able to fly almost a half mile at an elevation of 50 feet. According to an affidavit of Pruckner's from the 1930s, on Jan. 17, 1902, Whitehead was able to fly his airplane for more than two miles over Long Island Sound. If true, these aerial achievements not only predate the Wright Brothers' famed first flight at Kitty Hawk on Dec. 17, 1903, but they dwarf them. After all, the Wrights' first powered flights covered a distance of only 200 feet maximum, and achieved only 10 feet of clearance from the ground. If true, the Wrights' flights seem like child's play compared to what Whitehead and Pruckner were able to do. In this version of the story, the credit for the first powered airplane flight belongs not to two Ohioans, but to a German immigrant and his Hungarian assistant.

Various websites and documents which provided invaluable information for this article included <http://www.flyingmachines.org/gwinfol/pruckner.html>; http://www.456fis.org/DID_WHITEHEAD_FLY_FIRST.htm and the Library of Congress. Illustration credit: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gustave_Whitehead#/media/File:Whitehead_woodcut.jpg

- Tibor

Obviously, this is not the history I learned in school: the Wright Brothers hold the credit for the first flight, and it is their achievement and name that graces history books, state quarters, license plates, buildings and other public spaces. Gustave Whitehead, on the other hand, died near-penniless in the 1920s.

My great-great uncle Anton Pruckner fared better. After leaving Whitehead's shop, he married, had children and worked for many years as a successful machinist. Anton passed away in 1966, his obituary giving him credit for being one of the forefathers of modern aviation.

Why does history commemorate one group of inventors while consigning the others to obscurity?

The answer to this question is far from certain. The fight over credit for the first flight and the invention of the airplane is a contentious issue. Experts have been engaging in friendly and unfriendly debates over who deserves credit almost as long as the airplane has been around. Some think that the diminishing of Whitehead's and Pruckner's legacies comes from some dark conspiracy involving the Smithsonian. Others attribute it to the anti-immigrant (and particularly anti-German) sentiment of previous decades.

I will not bore you with a summary of the arguments and rebuttals and backbiting, but here is my take on the situation.

It may well be the case that Whitehead and Pruckner invented an airplane and were able to fly it multiple times with success. Perhaps history has ignored them and deprived them of their legacy. But to me, the question ultimately comes down to one of proof. As my fellow millennials might say: "Pics or it didn't happen."

That modern aphorism is quite correct in the most literal sense in this particular case. Wilbur and Orville Wright's flight in December 1903 was witnessed by five neutral and named observers. The brothers took copious notes in their daily journals as a means of preserving a contemporaneous record. They further supplemented their paper trail by telegraphing their father and making statements to the press soon after. And, of course, they have photographs to prove it.

By contrast, Pruckner and Whitehead have nearly none of these things. Few of their notes or papers exist from that period of time. Even my internet research yields frustratingly little in the way of concrete evidence. Local newspapers in Connecticut may have reported on these flights, but I cannot seem to find any originals. There is one illustration of Whitehead's flying machine mid-air, but it is hardly a substitute for a photograph or even a credible eyewitness's memorialized statement.

Details in Pruckner's own accounts regarding the first flight seem to shift over time. At one point, he says the first flight occurred in 1901, other times he gives the date as 1902. The distances and other details about the flights seem to shift as well.

Viewed charitably, this is natural when one tries to recall events which occurred some 30 or 50 years in the past, when the mists of time have begun to cloud and obscure clear memories. To view it as I would if this were a court case, I might dismiss any citations to newspapers or other witnesses as relying upon hearsay, and I might discount my great-great uncle's recollections as unreliable at best. As a lawyer, this makes sense to me. As an amateur historian and a genealogist, this is unsatisfying: the historical truth is the historical truth no matter whose airplane hangs in the Smithsonian, because what if Whitehead and Pruckner were really first?

Ultimately, regardless of who came first, each person involved in these early experiments deserves credit and thanks. It is due to their ingenuity, hard work, dedication, and vision that our modern world exists as it does today, and every contribution towards our world should be recognized and celebrated. I have always admired the women and men who have the foresight and will to create something new and different in the face of adversity, competition, and even mockery.

I put Anton Pruckner in the same category as other forgotten Hungarian visionaries, like Tivadar Puskás who worked with Alexander Graham Bell and invented the telephone exchange, and Dr. Ignaz Semmelweis, who invented the radical idea of washing one's hands before performing medical procedures. These individuals and many more are not remembered for their important contributions, but perhaps they should be.

JUST 4 KIDZ

It's June, and you know what that means, don't you? That's right...school's out for summer!! Ah, yes, glorious, sunny, warm summer! We can hardly wait!

June also means it's time for Flag Day. On June 14, our nation takes time to honor our flag and all that it stands for--one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. You can join in this celebration by making your own flag. You can make this even more fun by inviting some friends over and having everyone make their own flag. Once you finished making your flags, you can all have a mini-parade as you march around your yard waving your new flags.

What You Need

- Red and blue colored markers, pencils or crayons.
- A long pencil, straw or stick.
- A pair of scissors.
- Glue, glue stick or clear scotch tape.

What You Do

- Color the blank flags you see on the next page. Look at a real flag or a picture of the flag to use as a guide. Color the star field dark blue, making sure to leave the stars white. Then color every other stripe red, starting with the top stripe and ending with the bottom stripe. You should end up with 7 red stripes and 6 white stripes.
- Cut out both parts of the flag.
- Line up the front and back parts of your flag so that the star fields match up.
- Glue or tape together the two pieces along the edge with the star field.
- Slide your pencil, straw or stick between the two parts of the flag so that it ends up against the taped/glued end with just a tiny bit of the pencil/straw sticking up over the top.
- Now spread glue or tape the two sides of your flag together and let dry.
- Once dry, line up with your friends and parade around with Old Glory!

Have a great, safe and fun summer!

Three cheers for the red, white and blue!

Color in Old Glory using dark blue and red markers, pencils or crayons. Then, cut out and paste together so that the stars line up on both sides.

Branch 1 celebrated fraternalism for the benefit of our community by participating in the Join Hands Against Hunger campaign. Our branch, along with members and friends of the United Church of Christ of Bridgeport, collected non-perishable food items during the month of May. Our branch and church joined together to fulfill our common mission of charity to help fill the needs of others in our community.

There are many in our community who are in great need of food donations. For some of them, their survival depends on it.

The church made weekly announcements and included our appeal in all of their outreach communications. Our branch mailed out appeal letters to all of the local members. Members were asked to bring non-perishable items to the Church, located at 2180 North Ave.

The response was overwhelming. Some of the items donated included canned soups, canned tuna, peanut butter, canned fruits and vegetables, cereals, fruit juices, pastas and sauces, and much more. The bags were taken to several local food banks.

Thank you to all those who donated and made this such a success. We did indeed join hands in May to make a difference against hunger in our community.

Special thanks to Sandy Stasko, Ann Ballas, Shelley Visinski, Bill Bero and Jim Ballas for organizing and implementing this event. It is greatly needed in our community.

Branch 14 Cleveland, OH

Hello Summer! Happy Flag Day to our veterans and our military personnel in the U.S. and overseas. Thank you for your service.

We hope everyone's Memorial Day was relaxing and reflective.

Summer activities in the greater Cleveland Hungarian community are being scheduled for our entertainment and enjoyment. Please attend and have fun.

Congratulations and best wishes to Amanda M. Atkinson who was promoted to the position of executive director of Bethlen Communities in Ligonier, Pa., effective April 23. Ms. Atkinson will assume the position and duties that were held by Rev. Imre Bertalan, who passed away in August 2017. May God be with her, her family and the entire Bethlen Communities. (For more on Ms. Atkinson, see page 9.)

In addition to the promotion of Amanda Atkinson, I was elected to the Executive Board of the Board of Directors for Bethlen Communities at the spring Board meeting on April 23. I am looking forward to my new role and responsibilities.

I had the pleasure of attending the 62 Cleveland Cserkészball (62nd Cleveland Annual Hungarian Scout Benefit Ball) held April 28, celebrating over 60 years of the American Hungarian Friends of Scouting. You can read more about this grand event in this month's "Magyar Matters" section on page 8.

Branch 14 will be taking a break during the summer. Our next branch meeting will be held Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 7:00 p.m. at the Bethlen Hall of The First Hungarian Reformed Church, 14530 Alexander Road, Walton Hills. WPA Branch 14 adult members and guests are welcome to attend the branch meeting.

Other upcoming activities in the Cleveland area include:

- The 80th anniversary of the Cleveland Hungarian Cultural Garden and free Franz Liszt Concert on Sunday, June 24, at 4:00 p.m.
- Hungarian Heritage Night with the Lake County Captains at Classic Park, Eastlake, Ohio, on Saturday, June 30. (See the ad on page 8 for more information.)
- The Rev. Imre A. Bertalan Memorial Golf Outing, hosted by Bethlen Communities, on Saturday, June 30, in Ligonier, Pa. The tournament honors the memory of Rev. Bertalan and benefits Bethlen Communities' Student Scholarship Fund.

- The Cleveland Hungarian Cultural Garden Golf Outing and Dinner at Barrington Country Club on July 19.

- The Third Gala Organ Concert for the benefit of the Cleveland Hungarian Cultural Garden on Sunday, Oct. 7.

The officers and members of Branch 14 extend our sympathy to the families of Branch 14 members John Galambos, who passed away on April 20, and Joseph B. Volter, who passed away on April 15, and to all WPA members who recently lost a loved one. May they rest in peace.

Get well wishes are being sent to all of our Branch 14 and WPA members, as well as our friends, who might be feeling under the weather, dealing with health issues, recovering from a surgery, or facing other medical issues. We send out prayers of healing to Branch 14 members

Elaine Valentine, Ernie Sarosi, JoAnne Sedensky, Bobby Varga and Dante Parete and to Branch 14 President Caroline Lanzara. We send best wishes to WPA members John Torma, Betty Vargo and Linda Enyedy for their return to good health. Please keep them in your prayers.

Happy birthday and anniversary wishes are being sent out to all of our branch members and Home Office staff who are celebrating a June/July birthday and/or anniversary. We love you and wish you a very happy day. May you be blessed with many more birthdays and anniversaries.

Lastly, your continued support of the William Penn Fraternal Association Scholarship Foundation is very important and needed, as it provides the funds that are distributed to our student members for their college studies. Please support this worthy effort.

As always, please remember to keep in touch with someone you haven't seen or talked with in a long time. Don't let the opportunity pass you by. Pick up the phone and/or plan a visit.

Remember, Branch 14 members having news to share about themselves or family members can reach me at RichSaro@att.net or at 440-248-9012.

Branch 18 Lincoln Park, MI

Happy Flag Day. How lucky we are to have the right to fly our flag. I have been to countries where they did not have the rights we do. Remember to thank a vet. Fly your flag proudly.

Well, it's almost summer and I can say that spring has finally sprung. I like winter, so I really was not complaining when it stayed cool. But, it is time for warmer weather, and I love my flowers.

Speaking of flowers, we are getting ready for our annual Join Hands Day event on June 9. We have had requests for more flowers, so we will need your hands to help get the job done. We will meet at the Hungarian American Cultural Center at 10:00 a.m. One group will go to the Paragon, and one will stay at the center. We will finish at St. Michaels Episcopal Church in Lincoln Park. They have a bigger area this year so I will buy more flowers. Then we will have a great lunch. We should be done by 1:00 p.m., if we have enough help.

All those who help will get a free ride to our wonderful WPA Picnic in Hiram, Ohio, on Aug. 25. How can you beat that? Hope to see you there.

Our next branch meeting is June 20. We meet at the Cultural Center at 6:00 p.m. We will not meet in July. Our August branch meeting will be on Aug. 22. That is just before our WPA Picnic. Please mark your calendars. And, please remember your furry friends with donations when you come to our meetings.

Happy June birthdays to Vice Chair Anne Marie Schmidt, National Director Richard Sarosi, and Home Office employees Kerri Kramer and Debra Evans. My brother Joe also has a birthday on June 9. And, happy birthday to all of our wonderful members. We wish you many more.

I just heard that longtime member Ethel Molnar is celebrating her 97th birthday. WOW, that's wonderful!

Have a wonderful day, Ethel.

Congrats to Jimmy Lewis, son of National Director Debbie Lewis, on his upcoming wedding this July. We'll miss you at our golf tournament.

Get well to all of you who are not feeling up to your usual self, especially Caroline Lanzara, Linda Enyedy, Elsie Kantor, Julie Bubenko, Beata Csaszar, Doug Truesdell and David Bodnar. You are always in our thoughts and prayers.

Please remember all our deceased members and their families in your prayers, especially: Margaret Braun, Paul Gazdik, Eleanor Kender, Steven Kulcher and Donald Zeller. May they rest in peace.

Special thank you to Denise Funt and Carol Cox for thinking of WPA for your needs. You are appreciated.

Hello, Mom! No, I didn't forget you. Glad you are still doing well.

Special hello to Elaine Valentine; nice to hear from you. Yes, we miss David, too.

Remember to always help those who are less fortunate. Thank you to all who took part in Join Hands Against Hunger. Please help us again on Join Hands Day.

Contact me anytime with questions or suggestions.

I read something I want to share with you that I really liked: "Those who mind, don't matter, and those that matter, don't mind." I take it to mean, be yourself. You are all special in your own way.

Best of luck to all our members graduating from high school and college. There are many new opportunities awaiting you.

Branch 28 took part in the WPA Easter Basket program. Baskets were sent to two shelters which house children from troubled homes.

A reminder that June 30 is Hungarian Heritage Night at the Lake County Captains baseball game at Classic Park in Eastlake, Ohio. WPA is a co-sponsor for this event and will have a display table set up in the corridor area. (For more information and a reservation form, see page 8.)

Next Deadline

All articles & photographs for the July issue of William Penn Life are due in our office by June 8. If you have any questions, please contact John E. Lovasz toll-free at 1-800-848-7366, ext. 135.

Are your beneficiaries up to date?

That's a question you may not have asked yourself very often, if ever. But, it's one you should ask yourself at least once a year.

We can't stress enough the importance of regularly checking the beneficiaries listed on your life insurance certificates. It is the only way to ensure that the people you want to receive the benefits of your life insurance are the ones who will receive it.

Think about the changes that have occurred in your life since you purchased your life insurance. Getting married, having children, losing a loved one, getting remarried--all these life changes affect your responsibilities. In some states, divorce may make your beneficiaries null and void. Do the beneficiaries currently listed on your life insurance certificates reflect such changes?

If you think you need to update the beneficiaries listed on your certificates--either primary or secondary beneficiaries--contact your WPA representative. Or, call our Home Office toll-free at 1-800-848-7366.

Branch News

Branch 28 will hold its John Hands Day project sometime in June, so I will have some details about it in a future issue.

Nice to learn that Christina Toth was chosen as one of the 11 inductees to the Austintown Fitch High School Hall of Fame. Details of this honor will be shared after the ceremony is held in September.

Remember to fly the flag with pride and gratitude on June 14, Flag Day.

Looking forward to the upcoming summer activities and being able to visit with friends and acquaintances we made throughout the years.

Hope everyone has their golf reservations in to the Home Office.

Wishing a happy Father's Day to all our wonderful dads.

Happy birthday and anniversary to all our members celebrating in the month of June.

Get well wishes to all those who might not be feeling up to par, especially John Torma, Nancy (Hagg) Gunyula, Violet Sarosi, Ernie Sarosi, Caroline Lanzara, John Dankovich and Alice Nagy.

Keeping our recently deceased members, and those they have left behind, in our thoughts and prayers.

Happy Father's Day to all the dads out there!

Please take a moment and pray for all our service men and women, especially those in harm's way.

It has finally warmed up in Pittsburgh! Hope you are planning to attend the golf outing, Hungarian Heritage Experience and WPA Picnic. They will be here before you know it! Hope to see everyone again at these enjoyable fraternal events!

Branch 34 was pleased to participate in the Join Hands Against Hunger campaign. The branch donated monetarily to the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank.

Chair of the Board Andrew McNelis presented monetary donations to the 15th Ward Memorial Day Association from WPA and Branch 34. Each year, the community holds a memorial service to honor our fallen military men and women. These donations help offset the costs required to make the service unforgettable for those who attend. Last year, a week before the memorial service, volunteers, including many from Branch 34, placed approximately 14,000 American flags on veterans' graves.

Congratulations to branch member and daughter-in-law Valerie for completing the Pittsburgh Marathon. Valerie has completed over 50 marathons in Pennsylvania and other states. Way to go!

Special happy birthday wishes to my dear brother Gary and everyone celebrating their birthdays in June. Wishing you all many more.

Special anniversary wishes to Andy and Valerie and to my niece and nephew, Nicole and Bob. Many, many more.

Our members came through for Branch 44 on a rainy day in April, packing 50 "Hope Totes" to the accompaniment of fantastic Hungarian music. There may have even been a dance move or two while packing the totes! Officers and members alike packed totes, loaded them into cars and delivered the totes to the Haven of Rest Mission in downtown Akron.

Thanks to Jean and George Naswadi for allowing us to use their garage for the packing party. They even roped in George's brother Ray, who brought the music! The Stadlers provided the brawn for moving the bags' contents and then assisting in the actual packing.

Appreciation also goes to members of the Confer Family and their junior members; the Bentley Family and their junior members; the Mollohan Family with their teens, and Carmen Buck, who provided bag packing support at their homes. These are young families, and between work, attending baseball games, and other demands on their time, it is sometimes difficult to show up on certain dates, but we are appreciative that they were able to participate.

Lastly, a BIG thank you to the Kepich Family, especially Taylor Kepich, who packed the bags, as well as delivered them to the Haven of Rest Mission.

In other news, a story about Bob Chula working with veterans and the courts was picked up as a full page story in the Suburbanite Newspaper. Way to go, Bob!

We're thinking of adding a late summer branch activity. If you have any suggestions--such as, a picnic, a Rubber Ducks baseball game, a trip to a local casino--contact a branch officer and give us your thoughts.

We congratulate all students who are graduating, all scholarship recipients, all newlyweds, all new parents, and any members who have had great things happen to them recently.

We also extend our condolences to any members who have lost a family member or suffered another loss.

Our first ever chicken paprikas dinner was held on May 20 at the First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead. We hope to be able to publish pictures from this event in the next issue. It has been our experience that food is a wonderful way to promote fraternalism. Every time we have an event, we make new friends and find old ones.

We still have gulyás and kolbász in our freezer. Please call Branch Vice President Mark Maskarinec at 412-398-2078 or email Mark at maskarinac1836@comcast.net. Price is $6 per quart for the gulyás and $5.50 per pound for the kolbász.

On June 29, Tom Kazar, owner of Dorothy 6 and a WPA member, will be having another Hungarian Night at his restaurant, complete with the musical accompaniment of George Batyi. It promises to be a great night, complete with good food and great music. Come check out Dorothy 6 on 8th Avenue in Homestead. The food is always great, even if it's not on one of the Hungarian Nights. For reservations, call Tom at 412-464-9023.

Get well wishes continue to go to branch members Fred Gabocy, George Kostival, Janet J. Phillips, Jim Findlay, Justin Toth and Patricia Walochik.

We will be having a Join Hands Day event in conjunction with the Reformed Baptist Church at the First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead, located at 416 Tenth Ave., Munhall, on Saturday, June 2, at 8:00 a.m. We plan to do some landscaping and to clean up and repair the church parsonage after recent weather damage. Come on down and lend a hand. We will also provide lunch for our volunteers.

Branch 129 Columbus, OH

by Debbie Lewis

Hello from Columbus! We finally have beautiful weather. It seemed like winter was never going away.

The next few months is the time many families are taking vacations, so please be safe in all your travels. Please watch out for kids playing outside and for motorcycles as they can sometimes be hard to see.

Congratulations to our members graduating from high school or college. Good luck in all your future education plans or job searches.

Important days for the month are:

- Flag Day on June 14 - always display your flag proudly.
- Father's Day on June 17 - we thank our fathers for all you do for your families and hope you all have a great day.
- First day of summer on June 21.

Don't forget the registration deadline for the WPA golf tournament is June 15. The annual meeting of the William Penn Fraternal Association Scholarship Foundation will take place on the Friday of the golf week-end. If you can't attend, you can still send in a donation to the Home Office. The foundation provides a great benefit to our young members continuing their education.

Also, the deadline to sign up for the Hungarian Heritage Experience is June 25.

Our next branch meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 5, at Plank's Café, 743 Parsons Ave., beginning at 4:00 p.m. Please plan on attending.

The Hungarian Cultural Association invites you to join them for a Soup and Learn program on June 10 at 11:30 a.m. at St. Ladislav Church, 277 Reeb Ave., Columbus.

Congratulations to all those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries or additions to their families.

Get well wishes to all who have been ill or hospitalized. Hope all have a speedy recovery.

We also extend our sincere sympathy to all who have recently lost a loved one, especially to the family of our member Linda Albert.

Happy birthday wishes go out to our branch members celebrating this month, especially Branch Auditor June Coyne.

Happy Anniversary wishes go out to those special June couples.

Congrats to all the high school and college grads--way to go!

Please keep those who have lost a loved one in your prayers. May God bless their memory.

We are thinking of our branch members and friends who are under the weather or are recovering. Sending sunny wishes to Wayne Nelson and Sally Petras!

A gentle reminder for our members: we have the graduating high school seniors benefit available. Call our Home Office today for more information.

We thank all those who helped make our branch's last cooking project a success--from the volunteers who shopped, sliced, mixed, stuffed, boiled and cooked to the people who purchased dozens of stuffed cabbage. The branch's cooking project went well in May and we couldn't have done it without our volunteers who gave up their day. The töltött káposzta (stuffed cabbage) sale proceeds went to the Free Hungarian Reformed Church of McKeesport. Our next project will be determined in the fall.

We will take a break from our meetings this summer and plan to start back up after Labor Day. Please call Malvene at 412-751-1898 with news you want to share here.

The William Penn Association Magyar Folk Dancers are preparing for their performance season this summer. If you're in the greater Pittsburgh area, we encourage singers and dancers to join us this year. Please contact Malvene Heyz or find us on Facebook. We need to strengthen and build up our group. You can help by spreading the word or supporting us at one of our many performances. See you at the Bethlen Communities' annual Hungarian picnic in Ligonier, Pa., on Sunday, July 29, starting at noon.

Branch 249 Dayton, OH

School is almost over, flowers and vegetables are growing, the weather is mild and vacation time is here. Summer has started! Sweet, long, sunny, hot days and mild, lazy nights. It doesn't get much better.

Speaking of not much better,

Members and friends of Branch 249 enjoy dining and dancing April 28 at the Magyar Club of Dayton's Spring Dinner Dance.

April and May probably couldn't have been any better.

April 28 brought the Magyar Club of Dayton's Spring Dinner Dance. The sold-out crowd enjoyed all-you-can-eat cabbage rolls, chicken paprikás, club-made kolbász, paprikás potatoes and all the fixings. George Batyi's Gypsy Strings with Alex Udvary on cimbalom were extra wonderful, and a short program by the Dayton Festival Club Dancers enthralled the crowd. This night was wonderful; you need to make plans to attend next year.

We thank WPA Branch 249 members for helping out the club with set-up, baking, and working all phases of the event. Also, thank you to Fraternal Director Barbara House and the WPA Home Office for their generous support of Dayton Hungarian activities by placing ads in the beautiful dance program. Both continue to support many events of Hungarian heritage.

May brought two events. First was the World A'Fair at the Dayton Convention Center. Over 30,000 people enjoyed a weekend of ethnic food, drinks, desserts, crafts, costumes and booths representing more than 30 nationalities from around the world. The Festival Club Dancers of Dayton ran the Hungarian booth with help from many local Hungarians and friends, including many Branch 249 members. It was wonderful to watch the dancers perform and teach the folk dances of Hungary while wearing authentic costumes from Hungary. And, the kolbász, cabbage rolls and, especially, the pastries at the booth taught many people the great cuisine of Hungary.

On the same weekend, 50 members and friends of WPA came to the Dayton Dragons 5/3 Field to root for the Dragons baseball team. We enjoyed all the typical ball park food we could eat and saw a great game. As a special treat, catcher Mark Kolozsvary, our new honorary Dayton Hungarian, stopped by the Café Lounge to meet with the group and take some pictures. Mark is having a very good year, and we hope it continues so he'll be called up to the next level of ball and can continue his journey to the big leagues. Maybe Tibor Check can add him to his list of Hungarian ball players?

I hope this publication makes it to you in time for Saturday, June 2. Branch 249 is sponsoring flower planting at Queen of Martyrs Church between 9:00 a.m. and noon for Join Hands Day. We will have donuts and coffee to get the group rolling in the morning. We always have a great time with many volunteers. Please bring a few garden implements to help with the planting. See you there.

Congratulations to those celebrating anniversaries in June, a traditional favorite month of brides everywhere. I hope you have many more years of wedded happiness.

Happy birthday to those June babies, especially my special baby, Anne Marie. You keep getting better each year.

Our condolences go to those who have recently lost a friend or loved one. May the love and memory of them burn bright in your heart.

Get well wishes to those sick or in the hospital. May you get well quickly and enjoy this beautiful month.

That's all for now. Can you say "Fore"? See you next month in Canfield, Ohio.

Branch 296 Springdale, PA

by Mary A. Kelly-Lovasz

After a winter that wouldn't seem to ease its grip, followed by a brief spring, summer is finally upon us. It's often said about the climate of Western PA that spring is practically the non-existent season; that we go from winter, almost directly into summer. Are we relieved to put another winter behind us? Yes!

The deadline for submitting this month's branch article was the same day as our May branch meeting and our much-anticipated annual Join Hands Day project. So, I will describe how the project went in next month's article. My prediction is that a good time was had by all, and that we created something meaningful for the temporary residents of Ronald McDonald House of Pittsburgh.

Wishes for a terrific birthday go to branch member Mary Ann Slaninka and Branch Vice President Marge Kosheba. May you and all of our "June baby" members celebrate greatly on your special days.

June is quite the popular month for weddings, too. We happily extend congratulations to fellow 296er and Home Office employee Brittany Brown and her fiancé Bob Kellar on their upcoming June wedding. And happy anniversary wishes go out to all those couples who chose June as the month in which to unite in marriage.

Get well wishes to all of our 296ers who are recuperating. We send encouraging thoughts to each of you for a speedy recovery, especially to Branch Auditor John Torma, who continues to recover from recent surgery. My father-in-law John L. Lovasz also continues to recover from issues with his foot and heel. Hang in there, John: remember, best foot forward, okay?

Our thoughts go out to our members who have recently lost a loved one. We remember you and your loved ones in prayer.

As Father's Day nears, we offer sincere wishes to all dads with love, honor and appreciation. It is often said that any man can become a father, but it takes a special person to be a dad. Special greetings to my own husband and father-in-law. I no longer have my own dad, but I am grateful that his kind spirit has never left me.

This year, the WPA Annual Golf Tournament & Scholarship Days will be held in Canfield, Ohio on July 13 and 14, at the Kennsington Golf Club. The club is a new venue for our tournament. It is located near Youngstown. There is still time to make your plans to join us for a nice golf outing with friends and family at a great course. And, remember, "Y-Town" offers family-friendly things to do, as well, so it should make for an enjoyable weekend.

Save the date for Branch 296's annual bacon roast (szalonna sütés), on Sunday, Sept. 23. The same pavilion at Riverside Park in Oakmont has been reserved. In previous years, we've thoroughly enjoyed the food and fellowship and again, we are extending our invitation to everyone. It really is time well-spent! Guests are asked to bring a covered dish or dessert to supplement the hot dogs, kolbász, and bacon. This will be a great feast, so why not join us? We'll keep you posted with more details.

Branch 296 takes a summer hiatus from meetings. We will resume on Thursday, Sept. 13 at 6:30 p.m., at the King's Family Restaurant in New Kensington. Future meeting dates are: Oct. 11 and Nov. 8, same time, same place.

WPA agent Noreen Fritz, FIC, LUTCF, is refreshed from her recent trip to sunny San Diego and is prepared to answer questions regarding WPA's outstanding products and fraternal benefits. Noreen can be reached at 412-821-1837 or by email at noreenbunny.fritz@verizon.net.

Way back in 1945, composer Richard Rogers wrote "June Is 'Bustin' Out All Over" for the popular Broadway musical Carousel. That was so many years ago, but it still applies. I apologize if that ditty is now an annoying earworm in your heads, but please, go out and enjoy the spectacular month of June.

Branch 349 Weirton, WV

by Joyce Nicholson

Greetings from WPA branch 349 in the Ohio Valley Tri-State area!

Summer will soon be upon us on June 21, the longest day of the year. Over the next few months, take time to relax and enjoy the warmer weather with vacations, sports and picnics because you know fall and winter will be just around the corner. Take in as many of the enjoyable WPA events that you can. Grab your favorite cold beverage and enjoy the summer!

Flag Day is June 14, so fly your flag proudly and remember all the men and women in the military who protect our freedom and the right to fly that flag. It was on June 14, 1937, that Pennsylvania became the first U.S. state to celebrate Flag Day as a state holiday, beginning in the town of Rennerdale, a neighborhood in Collier Township just nine miles southwest of Pittsburgh.

And, don't forget Father's Day is June 17. Abraham Lincoln said, "No man stands taller than when he stoops to help a child."

Note on your calendar to keep Sunday, Aug. 26 open. That's the date for the next picnic to be hosted jointly by Branch 349 and the Ohio Valley Hungarian-American Cultural Society at Warren Township Park in Yorkville, Ohio. Just bring a dessert or side dish to share. If you plan to roast bacon around the fire pit, bring your own chair and bacon fork. Everything else will be provided. The picnic begins at 1:00 p.m., so come hungry because there is always plenty of delicious food!

We extend good wishes to those members with birthdays and anniversaries this month. Birthdays for June include Anne Marie Schmidt, Richard Sarosi, Kerri Kramer, Debbie Evans, Ashley Toth and Anna and Daniel Cermak.

Condolences are extended to the family of Mike Jacob, retired owner of Jacob & Sons Quality Meats in Martins Ferry, Ohio. His family still practices the traditional Hungarian methods of preparing meats. He will be missed.

For additional information about Branch 349 activities, or if you have any news you wish to share, please call Joyce Nicholson at 740-264-6238. You can call on Alan Szabo for all your insurance needs at 330-482-9994.

Branch 352 Coraopolis, PA

by Dora S. McKinsey

Here it is June already, and half of the year is almost over. Where does the time go? There must be some truth to the saying that time goes faster as we get older! It certainly has been going too fast for me, personally. Officially, summer starts June 21 this year. Time to get out the sunscreen.

For our Join Hands Day project, Branch 352 will be planting flowers in the planters at the Western Pennsylvania Humane Society on Saturday, June 2. The Humane Society is located at 1101 Western Ave. on the North Side. If you are interested in helping, please contact me for details. Come and join us; we would love to see you. Planting starts at 9:30 a.m.

This month, we celebrate two special holidays. Flag Day is June 14 on which we commemorate the adoption of the flag of the United States. The other holiday is Father's Day, which is June 17 this year. Happy Father's Day to all of those dads out there. There is no more important job for men than being a loving, supportive dad to their children.

Congratulations to all the graduates, both high school and college. All of that hard work will pay off. May you be guided as you take your next step, whether it be further education or that first job.

The school year will soon be over, so there will be many young ones playing outside. Please drive carefully. Also, be safe in your travels if you are going on a vacation.

WPA's fraternal events will soon be in full swing. Don't forget to review the information found in William Penn Life regarding the upcoming WPA golf tournament (pages 10 and 11). Come on, Branch 352 members, get a team together and join us. Please try to attend as many fraternal events as possible. Only with your support can WPA continue to provide activities for you to enjoy.

Happy birthday to all those celebrating a birthday this month. May you be blessed with many more.

Our condolences to all those who have lost a loved one recently. May your memories carry you through this very difficult time.

If you have any insurance needs or questions, please contact me at 412-932-3170 or by email at dmckinsey@hotmail.com.

Happy Father's Day to all Branch 800 fathers. We hope that you will spend the day with your children making happy memories. For sons and daughters who cannot be with their dad, contact him if possible; and if not, recall the bright moments spent with him.

June 14 is Flag Day. Fly the flag with pride. Be an example to others and demonstrate patriotism. Check out the photo of the U.S. Capitol Building in the WPA calendar for the month of June. It is inspiring.

Summer officially begins on June 21, although we have already experienced temperatures in the 80s. Let's hope for a good growing season and weather that all vacationers want to have!

Happy birthday to Branch President Dan Greiner and his brother, Vice President Dennis Greiner, who were June babies. We appreciate the work you both do for our branch and all its activities. Your devotion is apparent.

Hopefully, all WPA members read the WPA Actuary's Report for 2017, published in the April 2018 issue of William Penn Life. We should all be proud to be a part of such a well-run association. A big "thank you" to the National Officers and Board of Directors for your excellent management.

Get well wishes to Branch Auditor John Conti and to all those who are ailing. Our prayers are with you. Sympathy is extended to branch families who have recently lost a dear one. God is always with you.

Branch 800 meetings are suspended for the months of June, July and August and will resume in September.

The branch picnic is scheduled for Wednesday, Aug. 1, at 6:00 p.m. at Highland Park, rain or shine. Members and guests are welcome. Cost is $5 per person. Call Dan Greiner at 814-943-7471 for reservations. Deadline to make your reservation is July 25.

Branch Coordinator Bob Jones is always available to address your questions about WPA life insurance and annuity products. Bob can be reached at 814-942-2661.

Once again, Branch 8036 participated in WPA's Easter Basket program by donating Walmart gift cards to the Welcome Home Shelter in Greensburg, Pa. This emergency shelter provides a clean, safe place for homeless families and single women. It also offers life-skill classes such as cooking, budgeting and home management, in addition to on-site behavioral health counseling services.

Each year, Welcome Home provides approximately 7,000 shelter nights assisting nearly 250 homeless women, men and children in the Westmoreland County area. It opened its doors in October 2002, after a significant need was identified; the shelter was filled to capacity within 48 hours.

Welcome Home is funded by state grants, the United Way of Westmoreland County, private foundations and contributions from the generous community.

The gift cards our branch donated will be used to purchase much-needed items including food, toiletries and linens.

Flamed pie

A few weeks ago, my parents and brothers gathered and broke bread in celebration of Easter. Following our traditional Paschal meal and Easter egg hunt, we retreated to the living room for some conversation. Our discussion soon evolved to Hungarian picnics and our fondness for lángos. As we discussed various facts and folklore concerning the ultimate Magyar fast food, a few tidbits of trivia emerged concerning the tasty treat.

Lángos is also known as langalló, kenyérlángos, Töki pompos, flamed pie, Hungarian Pizza and Scythian Pizza. "Láng" means "flame" in Hungarian and can be traced back to Roman and Byzantium times. Lángos is fried in fat, lard or oil and is usually a featured menu item at many outdoor gatherings in the summer and autumn.

Just like gulyás, paprika or palinka, lángos has become a popular treat for many non-Magyars. Lángos stands can be found in many larger cities, such as New York, Toronto and Tokyo. In Spain, there is a restaurant called "Pancho El Húngaro" named in honor of the one of the greatest soccer players ever, Ferenc Puskás. After defecting in 1956, Puskás ended up in Spain and played several years for Real Madrid and led them to several European championships. A special lángos is featured on the menu called "Pancho" (his affectionately given nickname) and is the favorite of the locals, featuring onions and chorizo sausage as toppings.

The ingredients list for lángos is short. To a standard bread recipe of yeast, flour, sugar, salt and milk, one must add mashed potatoes to make it lángos. You can fry it in any fat or oil, but I prefer to use lard or peanut oil.

The perfect lángos is crunchy on the ends, chewy throughout and soft on the inside. Many like Hungarian Pizza cold, but my preference is when it is served piping hot right out of the pan.

When I visited Hungary a few years ago, there were literally dozens of toppings offered by the hundreds of vendors selling their own specific versions. The most popular garnishes are garlic, sour cream, various soft cheeses, szalonna (bacon), salami, garlic salt and onions. While visiting the promenade at Balatonfüred, I sampled a Hungarian hamburger using two lángos instead of a bun.

American-Hungarians apply many different toppings, including dill, caraway, liptauer cheese spread and gulyás. I once saw at a WPA Picnic, a gentleman pouring nakedli and paprikas sauce down the middle of his lángos then folding it in half before consuming. My brothers like to eat it with Erős Pista (a popular brand of hot sauce in Hungary) or Édes Anna (mild paprika) with onions and sour cream. My mother prefers powdered sugar or cinnamon sugar. I have spread maple cream or sugar across the golden-brown surface, watching it quickly melt into the nooks and crannies of the hot, fried dough.

This summer, go to a Magyar picnic, listen to the music and indulge in a truly uniquely Magyar treat, Flamed Pie.

I hope to see you at the Lake County Captains Hungarian Heritage Night on June 30.

The June 2018 puzzle is made up of 15 clues. Each clue is another name for lángos, an ingredient used in the recipe or a topping. Good luck and see you in July!

Éljen az Amerikai-Magyar,
Lizzy Cseh-Hadzinsky, Branch 28
